

Partners

JOHANNESBURG REGION

South African
NATIONAL PARKS
Honorary Rangers™

© Albert Froneman

THE BEST SPOT IN THE COUNTRY.

Three night birding weekend at Ndumo Game Reserve.

The Johannesburg Region of SANParks Honorary Rangers and BirdLife South Africa invite you to join us for a three night birding weekend at one of South Africa's premier birding locations - the legendary Ndumo Game Reserve in northern KwaZulu-Natal. The reserve boasts no less than 490 species, including Neergard's Sunbird, Rudd's Apalis, Eastern Nicator, Pink-throated Twinspot, Rosy-throated Longclaw, Narina Trogon, Sooty Falcon and Pel's Fishing-Owl to name a few.

Date:

26 - 29 October 2018

Venue:

Ndumo Game Reserve,
KwaZulu-Natal

Price:

Accommodation costs
for the weekend:

HUTS

R5 700 for 2 people sharing.

CAMPING

R3 500 for 2 people sharing.

R2 200 single

Contact:

Tim or Stuart

info@birding.org.za

*Terms and Conditions apply

SANParks Honorary Rangers - Volunteers in Support of SANParks.

All proceeds from this event will go towards projects identified by SANParks

www.sanparksvolunteers.org | info@honoraryrangers.org